Dear Sir

Inquiring about the possibility of Creating a New Marketing Campaign

I am the Marketing Manager of Denso Trading PVT Ltd. We are a leading company in the field of eco-friendly products, with over 30 years of experience.

We have decided to take up a new business venture, by introducing a new line of eco-friendly food utensils. These products include pant and paper based spoons, forks and plates of different sizes and four different colours (red, blue, yellow and black).

Since you are a reputed company in business solutions, we have decided to create a new marketing campaign for our new line of products in collaboration with your company. We have enclosed a brochure and a detailed outline of our products for your information. Please contact me for any further details on 077-312 2345.

Thank You

Yours faithfully
